br. Tutt: Dear Sir-During this year I trested nine numbed cases of lung diseases. In the lower wards of the city the cases were of a very severe type. It was there my attention was called to Tutt's Expecterant, and I confess my surprise at its wonderful power. Puring a practice of twenty years I have never known a medicine to act as premptly and with such happy cflects. It instantly subdued the most violent dies of coughing, and invariably cared the discoses in a few days: I cheerfully endorse it as the best lung medicine I ever used.

HAD TERRIBLE NIGHT SWEATS.

Memphis, February 11, 1871.

Dr. Tutt: Sir—I have been suffering for nearly two years with a severe cough. When I commenced taking your Expectorant I was reduced to one hundred and sixteen pounds in weight. I had tried almost everything; had terrible night sweets. I have taken half dezen bettles. The right sweets have better bottles. The night sweats have left me, the cough has disappeared, and I have gained fifteen pounds in firsh. I recommend it to all my friends. With great respect, OLIVER RICE.

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS. Reader, have you caught a cold? Are you unable to raise the phlegm? Have you an irritation in the throat? A sense of oppression on the lungs, with short breath? Do you have a fit of coughing on lying down? A sharp pain now and then in a region of the heart, shoulders and back? IF SO, OUR ADVICE IS to take at once a dose of Tutt's Expectorant; you will soon be able to raise the phlegm. In an hour repost the Expectorant, place a frot iron to the soon be able to raise the phiegm. In an hour repeat the Expectorant, place a frot iron to the feet take two of Tut's Pills. You will soon fall into a pleasant sleep and wake up in the morning cough gone, lungs working freely; easy breathing and the bowels moving in a natural manner. To prevent a return of these symptoms use the Expectorant several days.

Wagner, bearded the Express train for West Virginia for the purpose of getting married. On the 19th they arrived at Lewisburg, where they expected to be married, but were disappointed. The Lewisburg Criterion describes the prospective groom as "an embryo mous-tached youth," and the bride as "a tall and rather good looking semi blonde." The Criterion sage :

"The young lady hersoif related her adventures with great gusto to an admiring group who surrounded her at the Lawisburg Hotelhow she left while her mother was visiting, and her father at the wood pile, how she spent a day in an old barn waiting for her lover, how they got lost in the woods while they were stealing their way to Fishersville on the C. & O. R. R., and after wandering about all night, were thrown into consternation on finding themselves in the morning only a few hundred yards from her father's house. Having finished her eloquent recital, she announced her intention to array herself immediately in immaculate white for the auptisls that were now at last to be consummated. The young gentleman engaged the services of Mr. Wilhelm, and now nothing remained buf to get the license. He moved in confidence on the Clerk's office. But alas! Mr. Spotts, the inexorable, refused the license. The bridal dress had to be deffed .-But the spirit of the fair wearer was not crushed. She declared that she had tried three times to get married before, and that she was going to be married this time if she had to go to the end of the world. When she appounced her plans, the young man gracefully acquiesced, That evering they left, accompanied by Lije Thomas, and, under his skillful leadership, have doubtless ere this been victorious."
